

Roy lives with his wife Shirley within the ward in the Shakespeare Tower in the flat once occupied by past Master Audrey Ballard.

He is a semi-retired Chartered Secretary who now manages two endowed charities in Westminster.

He is a Churchwarden of the Parish of Great St Bartholomew, just beyond the ward boundary. He is also The Renter Warden of the Worshipful Company of Arts Scholars and a member of The Worshipful Company of Parish Clerks.