LORD MAYOR'S SHOW Saturday 11th November 2023

Know ye that we have granted ... to our barons of our city of London, that they may choose to themselves every year a mayor, who to us may be faithful, discreet and fit for government of the city, so as, when he shall be chosen, to be presented unto us, or our Justice if we shall not be present...and he shall swear to be faithful to us...

The 1215 London Charter

This spectacular tradition, steeped in the history and pageantry of the City of London, is surely not to be missed. Even on a damp November morning, with the chill of the pavement creeping into the soles of your feet, there is something so stirring and heart warming about this event that it is impossible not to enjoy every moment of the spectacle. However, it's also a very good idea to follow the show with a good lunch!

So, for my first event as incoming Master, I have arranged lunch at Haz, 34 Fosters Lane, St Pauls, just a short walk from the Guildhall.

We will sit down at 12.30 to enjoy a shared starter, followed by a main course of your choice, then dessert, all washed down with half a bottle of wine and finishing with a cup of coffee. We should be warm enough by then.

As my year begins, I look forward with excitement to some interesting, some informative and (perhaps primarily) some entertaining and sociable events, where 'Fun and Friendship' will definitely be the order of the day! My planned programme for the year is below and also on our website, and I hope to have the chance to meet you all at some stage - also hopefully more than once!

December 14th	Christmas dinner at the City University Club	February 2nd	Civic lunch at the Guildhall
Late February	London Gin Distillery and supper	March	House of Commons and lunch
April 18th	Private dining at Le Beaujolais	May	Thames Trip and lunch at Greenwich
June	Beating the Bounds and lunch	July	Clarence House and supper
August	Trinity House and lunch	September	Gourmet dinner at Watermans' Hall

Please use the form attached to book your place for lunch on the 11th November, to be returned to me by the 5th November.
