- Event: Family Day – Car Treasure Hunt centred on Saffron Walden, Essex.
Date: Sunday 19th August 2018. 10:00 to 16:00
Location: Start Whittlesford Parkway railway station, Cambridgeshire.
Cost: £15.00 per adult, £5 per child includes afternoon refreshments.
Travel: Whittlesford Parkway railway station/Red Lion car park.

This is a new initiative by myself in the hope of attracting young and old alike to a family fun day in the Cambridgeshire/Essex area. We start at 10.00 at the Red Lion adjacent to Whittlesford Parkway station where you may obtain some morning coffee. Here you will be put into teams and sent off on the first part of your clue hunt through some picturesque villages ending at Saffron Walden for lunch. If a fine day you might opt to bring a picnic to have on the common, or the master can suggest a variety of eating places to suit all budgets. After lunch there will be some more clues to solve along with a maze to negotiate before ending with afternoon tea and prize giving.

Although the day will be via car, do not worry if you do not have a car since it is hoped that those with transport will be willing to take extra passengers (all you need to do is get to Whittlesford Parkway station on the Liverpool Street line). It is hoped that members will bring along their children/grandchildren who will find solving the clues fun, while adults who may not relish the thought of a treasure hunt can just enjoy visiting the many quaint villages along the way and the history you will learn from the guidebook provided.
