

A PLAN of LONDON HOUSE,

Now in the Possession of M. Jacob Hulse Decr 1787.

It is situate on the West side of Aldersgate Street, in the Parish of S<sup>t</sup>. Bartholomew. (It was formerly belonging to Lord Petre, but reverting to the Crown, K. Charles II gave it to the Bishops of London.) This House, and Garden was bound ed by the Priory Wall of S<sup>t</sup>. Bartholomew's the Great, which Wall encompassed the Garden and House, as appears by the Plan. When the Priory was dissolved in Henry VIII's Time, Ed. Petre built the Infirmary, now the Garden House, on the Ruins and Foundation of the Priory Wall, and therefore belongs to the Parish of S<sup>t</sup>. Bartholomew's the Great. This is likewise the Case of the Audit House, which is also built on the Priory Wall.

Printed, in Order to determine what Part of this House is in the Ward of Aldersgate, Parish of S<sup>t</sup>. Bartholomew, and what Part is in the Ward of Faringdon Without, Parish of S<sup>t</sup>. Bartholomew's the Great: It stands on near 700 Acres, or 12150 Feet Square.
