My next event, is a visit to the Bank of England Museum on a subject close to all our hearts, money! The Bank of England has a unique role in promoting the good of the people of the United Kingdom by maintaining monetary and financial stability. Come and visit the Museum to learn more about the Bank's history since its foundation in 1694 and its work today at the centre of the economy. I am suggesting you arrive at 11am to explore the museum prior to the talk at 12 noon. Following the talk there will be time for you to revisit aspects of the museum that take your interest before we depart for lunch at approximately 13.20.

Lunch will be at Brasserie Blanc and will include a couple of glasses of wine, or soft drink, a main course and dessert (please make your selection from the choices below), with tea or coffee to finish.

I do hope you will be able to join me and I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Sally Gill
